

WebEx Chat Log from Airfield Asphalt Industry- User Producer Group Meeting

from Bryan Keas to everyone: 12:18 PM

Will the government require similar certification for Title II inspection staff, or just contractor QC representatives?

from Matthew Hoyle to everyone: 12:19 PM

It is recommended that Title II inspectors will have the certification but we are not mandating the requirement. It would be mandated in the Title II contract from Matt Kundrot to everyone: 12:40 PM

Need to move Craig closer to the mike

from Rich Thuma to everyone: 12:40 PM

I'm not hearing much of anything that Dr Rutland is saying

from Craig Parker to everyone: 12:40 PM

Un able to hear Dr. Rutland

from Kevin Wolterman to everyone: 12:43 PM

Is anyone able to hear Dr. Rutland?

from Donald Bloodworth to everyone: 12:43 PM

Sorry, but can't hear conversation

from Craig Parker to everyone: 12:43 PM

Only 20-30% coming across at best.

from Craig Parker to everyone: 12:44 PM

Yes

from Donald Bloodworth to everyone: 12:44 PM

Yes, much better

from Craig Parker to everyone: 12:46 PM

Back to nothing

from Danny Gierhart - AI to everyone: 12:46 PM

Mark is coming through clearly

from John Duval to everyone: 12:55 PM

The sound quality is really poor for any speaker other than you and Mark. The discussion is unintelligible.

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:00 PM

How is Matt coming thru?

from John Duval to everyone: 1:01 PM

I heard most of what Matt said

from Kevin Wolterman to everyone: 1:01 PM

We can hear him

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:02 PM

we will do better on this end with speaking loud. Thanks for speaking up (no pun intended)

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:03 PM

Please let us know when you have difficulty hearing someone

from Craig Parker to everyone: 1:05 PM

From a contractor's perspective on the pay factors. It is obviously is a significant difference to have plan elevation other than just thickness be considered. Something that comes into play with this is on these jobs, it's not uncommon to have a different subcontractor under a General Contractor contract in control of the subgrade. Given the advancement of GPS paving, this issue could see improvement with a higher use of GPS

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:11 PM

can you hear Tim from wirtgen?

from Brett Williams to everyone: 1:11 PM

Not really

from Kevin Wolterman to everyone: 1:11 PM

Maybe 50%

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:15 PM

can you hear speakers

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:18 PM

we will go to break after the FAA update

from Danny Gierhart - AI to everyone: 1:23 PM

Thanks Matt! Happy to be able to join online.

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:41 PM

can you hear Dave well?

from Greg Norwood to everyone: 1:42 PM

yes very well

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:44 PM

what slide are you seeing now

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:44 PM

bike on rope?

from Greg Norwood to everyone: 1:44 PM

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:44 PM

ok

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:50 PM

There may be a lag in slide advancing on your end. Current slide is "What Should Have Happened..."

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:54 PM

that is the current slide

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 1:59 PM

you should be seeing a map of US

from Danny Gierhart - AI to everyone: 2:02 PM

Seeing it - now Rutting Performance Testing Options

from Danny Gierhart - AI to everyone: 2:03 PM

Maintenance cost of APA big driving factor

from John Duval to everyone: 2:16 PM

Great presentation Dave!

from Mark Buncher to everyone: 2:35 PM
